

Jewish Communities around the world join hands and adopt all of the Sderot families these coming Holidays

A house in Sderot hit by a qassam missile

(Photo: Oren Rosenfeld)

10,000 families this holiday will receive your Holiday gift baskets !!!

- Be part of the largest solidarity event this holiday
- Every community around the world will unite and show support to the brave families of Sderot.

Jewish families around the world adopt Sderot families

This coming holiday each family in the Sderot area will receive a large gift basket with a personalized letter from a different family from around the world.

Every community's name and contribution will be marked in a major event that will take place in Sderot before Sukkot and Chanukah and will show the support, care and solidarity from the Jews around the world.

How to get started ...

Contact your community leader and promote this event.

Urge families to join !!!
Ask them to writing a warm greeting card to a family in Sderot and donate $36 for a large Holiday Kosher gift basket.

Contact us for any information or help needed in this project !!!

'Connections Israel' is a non-affiliated, educational, non-profit organization that provides services for Jewish communities and schools around the world enabling them to help show support for Israel in a variety of ways.

For Donations visit:

<http://connectionsisrael.com/donate/>

Israeli residents wait to board a bus evacuating them from Sderot. May 17, 2007. (Photo: Reuters)

High school students embrace during a rocket attack at their school in Sderot May 17, 2007. (Photo: Reuters)